

Altinkum.Com Property Management Department offers two kinds of Letting Service;

Those who already purcha

ment are our priority client

Our Company's Travel Agency Department offers variety of hotel accommodation as well as private property rental offers. Fully furnished apartments or private houses are professionally handled and promoted sufficiently in all kind of marketing methods. Those who would like to invest in property only for letting business should consult our letting department for detailed feasibility report so that it will help you to canalize your investment to the most advantages one.

Second type of clientele who wants to rent the property for their own use should use the facilities of our estates department to find the best possible option which matches their criteria either for short or long term rentals. We may remind you that you are treated at utmost professionalism to make you feel comfortable with your selection.